

I felt that our homeroom teacher Mrs. Black was going to be fired. I thought that Mrs. Black was gonna cry. Thought she was brave and always cheerful, never showing her negative side, always showing her positive side. Mrs. Black was also funny, thought her days as a teacher was over. I felt that Mr. Brewer was being mean to her and that saying she is fired. I felt that she was going to be replaced by a new teacher.

How I feel

Right now I feel comfortable, but for the past 25 minutes I felt uncomfortable because I didn't know what was happening or what was gonna happen when I saw Mr. Brower. I thought something bad was gonna happen to Ms. Black. All I was thinking was bad events that's gonna happen, especially when I heard gonna & the girls saying Ms. Black gonna be fired. But I didn't want to believe, so I just went in class and thought about the good events that is gonna happen.

What I'm feeling now is like a little scared and nervous. I was nervous because to me it looks like we skipped out of pretty bad. I'm kinda worried for Ms. Black because she might be in a situation which I might have seen yesterday. I just kinda know if one upset or something because she looked like it earlier this morning. I saw that she was like talking to a teacher yesterday and I think that something might have happened between her and that teacher. So I was kind of nervous earlier because when I saw Mr. Brewer and Mr. Gargano waiting at our class I felt like something was wrong I thought that one of our classmates might have got in trouble. Well thanks Ms. Black for letting us write how we feel.
I feel better that you don't really not upset

Right now, the little girl is my father is a 4 times a day, I also see Ms. Black. She is a very nice woman.
She is a very nice woman. She is a very nice woman.
I saw Ms. Black yesterday. She is a very nice woman.
I saw her last night. She is a very nice woman.
I know that she is feeling bad.

-How I've been feeling and seeing!

For the past week and a couple of days I've been feeling really sick and tired but this morning was an unexpected morning for me. "Expect the unexpected" is what my sister always said and I guess it's true.

I guess I always expected to see Ms. Black dolly every morning but this morning was the exact opposite.

Firstly, when I saw Mr. Brewer and Mr. Chagrin I wondered why they were around. Then I felt really nervous when Mr. Brewer took Ms. Black in class. I know something is wrong. I've never before seen Ms. Black this upset. It is also a good thing she's trying to hide her anger but I know she doesn't feel well.

I don't mind people being upset but I never saw her this upset before. I'm just glad we're not the ones who upset her this badly. Something wrong! I just don't know what.

For the past 75 minutes I felt really sorry for Ms. Black because I thought that she was not going to work. I even got mad when my classmates told me that she was going to get fired from our school. I also felt bad when she got mad and stressed out when she was doing something.
When she got out I got mad because I was seeing people who were bad feeling about her.
